Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

| Get an electronic or paper copy of your health record | • You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
• We will provide a copy or summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. |
|---|---|
| Ask us to correct your health record | • You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
• We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days. |
| Request confidential communications | • You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or send mail to a different address.
• We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests. |
| Ask us to limit what we use or share | • You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
  ○ We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. |
| Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information | • You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
• We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). |
| Get a copy of this privacy notice | • You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. |
| Choose someone to act for you | • If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
• We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action. |
| File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated | • You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting our Privacy Officer, Pat Tansey at 518-449-5155 x 100
• You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-6966775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
• We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint. |
Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

| In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to: | • Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
  • Share information in a disaster relief situation
  • Include your information in a hospital directory |
